2cash Now Supports the Axie Infinity SLP Utility Token

Axie Infinity has gained popularity as a Pokemon-inspired digital pet universe where players use their cute characters called Axies in various games.

Smooth Love Potion (SLP) is an uncapped utility token that can be utilized to facilitate smooth gameplay and to breed new Axies.

2cash now supports Axie Infinity's utility token. The players' SLP can now be deposited into their 2cash wallet where it can be traded with other cryptocurrencies, or withdrawn to a local bank account. In the Philippines, it can be converted to PHP and withdrawn through Palawan or GCash. Furthermore, it can also be used with 2shop or 2cash Bill Pay.

The new users can create a FREE 2cash wallet account with the promo code of the person who invited them which includes the first month's AC20 subscription. The best part is with a 2cash AC20 subscription, there are ZERO transaction fees plus you earn 20% rewards on everyone you invite who creates a 2cash wallet account with your promo code.
